3rd Glen saw a new look in 1986-87 as it began to rebuild for the future. It switched to a more academically conscious floor (the first time ever) and it also kept up its long time reputation for being peaceful, quiet, and cautious (ha! ha!). But with the few parties we did have, remember . . . ???

- Bucky-the-Ballerina and Hula Dancer, good job, but you forgot the tequila!
- Pete, you practiced with your first room-mate, didn't you? Ya, sure.
- having more defaults in sports the first week than in the past five years.
- Trevor's sprained ankle 1 hour after his arrival
- Andy (alias A. Prone): nice dive Bud - 9.5!
- Bear having an appetite for anything, right Temple?
- Donovan - over Bressin it the first month
- The watermelon mixer with 4th Gren (Wow!) - A.J. - the more than willing skydiver
- that great pre-Panda mixer, thanks Mike - Rob - leaving his image at home over Xmas
- With just a few memories mentioned, there were many clubs established on the floor.
- The Belleville Puke Club - Pres. Pete M. - The Piece of the Rock Club!!
- The Clepto Club: many spontaneous events - The Siesta Club - Pres.: Charles Nash
- The Purgatory Club - playing your all-time. top 40 favourites!
- The Smoke Club - with Stephane leading us forward, but not too quickly!

And with the memories come our favourite sayings that made us so unique:

- | | | |
|------------------------|--------------------|----------------------------------|
| - Bodacious Ta Tas | - Titties | - the Horizontal Zulu War Bop |
| - Don't break anything | - Do me! | - No, this just won't do at all. |
| - You're lunched | - You went | - B- B- H- B- |
| - Ya gotta love it | - look Big Shooter | - That's it, get the heck out! |

Looking back at all the events that took place, no wonder we all failed. Hope the year was something never to be forgotten. 3rd Glen memories . . .

On September 7, Laura and I sat down to try and guess what type of floor housing would bless us with in 86-87. We had imagined every disaster, from girls who only wanted to study to those who had but one interest, hairy ugly creatures! Before we knew it sixty-seven girls began to arrive one by one, but more often just to keep us on our toes three by three, four by four, and even five by five! The girls came from all over: Westerners, Southerners and even a few Maritimers! These girls were destined to uphold traditions of beauty, high academic standing, athletic prowess, Fourth Glen partying, and the renowned call.

As a group not only will we remember the Bree's, Oliver's, RRRA pubs, frosh week, Panda, and unfortunately Saga, but as well we boast the best non-alcoholic Bree's beverage, an unforgettable Henry pub crawl and barrel racing at its finest! To put it simply . . . "If that's what University is like, we're here to stay!"

Some of our more personal memories include:

- Gene's Mrs. - Cathy's cardboard chairs - Tasha and Loretta's unique way of relieving tension - Maria's chicken call - Catching Karen and the crew in the act - Lynda's makeovers - Stephanie's never-ending smile - Bonnie's embarrassing word - Drahomira's drunks - Lynne's burning episodes - Janet's 99 roomies - Wren's confusion - colourful signs by Meredith, Fran, Nancy and Tammy - birthday bashes - Olga - Chris and Angie on their P.J. travels - fashions by Leanne - communications through the air vents - Karen's undies - Amy's sports control - Laura and Angie's pig suits - Sue and Siobhan's signals at Renfrew - Alison's smiles - Carol needing the pass key at 8:20 a.m. - floor shirts by Larry - bowling in the hallway with Anne and Margaret - and of course our night to remember, January 31, our floor dinner.

For those of you not mentioned, just remember - yearbooks are censored!!!

Academically speaking we have certainly received our fair share of A's - but when you get down to it, there was only one reason we all chose Carleton- studying - right Mom and Dad? Take care! xoxo

5TH GLENGARRY

Well, the boys of Fifth Glen are fast approaching the end of the year. Don't they look happy. Winning the Tug of War in Orientation Week, these guys thought they would have a good and easy time of it until they were disqualified from the canoe race. The Century Club saw the birth of Mike "SPIT" MacLellan, who eliminated his competition by drinking a glass of his name and was worried about our safety so he generously replaced a fire detector which was mysteriously broken. Yes, the first week sparked the ideas of an ever-increasing group of individuals to leave a little something of themselves on the floor. This iron-stomached group is known as "Duke Patrol" and is currently comprised of: Floor Rep Mark Singer, little Eugene, Pluto, Wee Davy Wilson, the Schlittster, Tim Griffiths, Steve White, Andy, brother Jim, Sanuri, George the Greek, Doc, John May, and Butterball. This year also saw some of the boys to be visited by the local medic, John May's wrist and Tim Griffith's finger during football and Greg Neverkinevell's jaw in a drunken face plant. There's a saying that you can't get blood from a stone, well it's almost as tough to get money from a Lebanese terrorist but he finally paid. This year also saw the arrival of the manifest of the "Karl Marx Dart Club" and the recognition of the KMDC east. Over the past few months, some of us have become older but not much wiser as the walls of Mr. Todd Clark will attest to. Sports fans fill the TV lounge but tend to be disappointed by the floor teams. Quarter finalists in coed volleyball with 2nd Gren - Thanks girls. We actually defeated Camsa in soccer, but to off-set this the "B" hockey team was demolished 12-0 to an "A" division team. Honourable mention to Hugi who placed second in the Kiss-off. Although our athletic standing is on shakey ground, we excel at chess, darts, and can kick expletive deleted in euchre. Thanks to us, Calabria will be able to open another store. Honourary floor members, Amy Plumber and Bucky. Thank you Third Gren for dinner. Here's to Ron, Res guy or not!

The Memories of 6th Glen will live on the minds of all who have experienced it. 6th Glen, what a concept. It gave new meaning to the phrase "kiss reality goodbye". There were many things that happened on the middle floor of Glengarry. Read and indulge in the memory: Paula Chuck. L'il Jeff's bubble baths. The Laff. Bong! Love my carpet. The men and women of Eighth Glengarry continued their merriment and mayhem along with the Boozehog tradition to make this a year to remember . . . if only we could. From one end of the hall to the other, the blue waves and white walls guided many of us to our beds after numerous social outings. Oh sure academics were important to all of us, but we still made time to meet, greet, and become as close as a family. The big suites were home to numerous R.R.R.A. staff, parliamentary pages, figure skates, journalists and just plain nutty people; the kind you'd want to share a bathroom with. The baby suites too, had introverts, extroverts, and perverts to counterbalance the off-the-wall frosh. Along the hall, the boys and girls would dance, sing, and talk daily, ignorant to the cries of humble (but not too humble) Res Fellow. Only some of us were blessed with crazy can-mates and talk-all-night phone-mates. That doesn't mean the guys in the comunals didn't go nuts . . . sing for us boys! The spirit on this floor goes far beyond the depth of a bottle. Awesome soccer, ball hockey, and broomball teams (not to mention mini-Panda representatives) didn't always make us champions but sure made us proud to wear the Boozehog "Pig in a Glass" symbol over our breast.

So here's to us Hogs!

Lest we forget:

- Pile driving at the Gatineau Picnic
- "I like dirt; brown dirt! I'm a mole and I eat dirt!"
- "Hey, what happened to you last night?"
- "Gotta love a Frosh" - Keg 86 and 87
- "Eat me, I'm a box lunch." - "Get out of my room scum!"
- "Let's go to Oli's." - "R.A.I.D.!"
- "Spank me I'm a bad baby." - "Now isn't that special?"
- "Are they Boozehogs, or are they Satan? You be the judge."

Here's to the first year of 9th Glen as a co-ed floor! We've had one hell of a year! There are too many great times to put into such a small space, it doesn't matter because each of us has our own special memories that will always be with us as a 9th Glenner; besides, why should we tell you?! Ninth doesn't really need a write-up - we're quite outspoken ourselves, thank you very much!

To the rest of res, but especially to the "men and women without shame" - Best of wishes and keep partying!

We're the girls that live on ten;
Party real hard and like the men.
If you don't like what you see,
Back off Jack – don't mess with me.

On ten we only have the best,
We've got more to offer than the rest.
Ten Glen girls really know how to chug,
We can drink you under the rug.

Jungle and Deanna are the best team,
They will reign on Tenth supreme.
Quite a floor they have up there,
Beautiful girls with a crazy flare.

You've heard of us, there is no doubt,
Tenth makes you want to scream and shout.
Give us a try and you will see,
Tenth is the best in Glencarry!

And now we'll observe two minutes of silence while we read from Psalm 69:007: And Moses said to the girls on Tenth:

"Like, hoot into the fridge and turf me a beer."

She then sat down with her bottle of newfie screech and gave the eulogy for Earl the Dead Cat:

CHEW MY BOX!

The term started off with a bang as the Glen Grads stumbled over the fifteen trunks that lined the corridor of 11th Glen, thanks to Mr. Nova Scotia, Bill Dubinsky. Immediately after moving in, it became apparent that there was a desperate need for leadership on 11th. Due to a mysterious draft movement, and the fact that no one else wanted the job, Marianne "The Fridge" Parsons, was unanimously acclaimed floor rep.

To the amazement of all concerned, a quorum of grad students actually attended and enjoyed the floor dinner – thanks to a bit of friendly persuasion by the exterminator. Wining, dining, dancing, and roasting highlighted the evening's activities.

The floor's athletic prowess was regularly being put to the test in the areas of squash, intra-mural basketball, and arm wrestling (a victory for the feminist forces), and climbing stairs for those wonderful late-night get-togethers which the Ottawa fire department regularly attended. Of course, left up to Rae, all the fire alarms would have been disconnected and the university sued to the last red cent.

Life would not have been complete without our greasy mid-night visits from the sexually frustrated M and M vaseline terrorists. On the topic of sexual frustration, we must not forget the wonderful snow sculpture dedicated to "real" men everywhere – none of which can be found on 11th!

On one of those rare occasions when the "morgue" did decide to come to life (thanks to suite 1105, 3 hip girls and 1 hip guy), we received a complaint about the noise level from 10th Glengarry – talk about your role reversal!

It's his birthday and all those crazy Henrys are at the Brees watching him act like a total asshole. Well that's life on 12th Glengarry for ya. Everybody wants to be like Rick Tremblay. There's slaughter talking to piere, Dave looks like he cares about him, but he just wants a good paramed evaluation. Look there's Michelle and Christine by the popcorn machine, the smell of popcorn drives those bitches crazy. There's Ferrett, what a well-behaved individual, gee I wonder if it's cold in the T.V. lounge. Hey there's Icebitch and Lump, I love them like my own sisters. That reminds me of the time I pushed Little Nanly in the sewer. Oh there's Big Al and Junkyard talking to two hot babes, I wonder if Big Al has enough cologne for the two of them. Mike and Karen look pretty mellow right now, wait till they get home, I bet Mike has a blender. Snuggles just said hi, I ignored her because she knows Jujitsu, and I don't want my head kicked in. Oh no, Iceman is hitting on another vixen, looks like Rick is going to be up all night. (Dwayne Cunningham) and Steve Cassidy). Albert is talking to Slaughter, what's this! Albert can walk. I wonder where Sasq is, I bet he's at peer counselling, what a dude. Where is Pigster and Rodin, I bet there with Steve Winwood "Back in the High Life". Chachi, what a pizza head, he's probably with some ugly broad on 3rd Glen. Where is Bouff? That little bundle of Joy, I love him. Joe Bodi and Victor are a Barefax getting sloshed and talking about the Vancouver Canucks. Bill and Shakey passed out after playing killer yandr. As for the girls in 201, I heard they rented a manikin from Eatons, and there suite door is locked. Suite 101, Its Crazy! Call Rez Security. Peter Sheagan is the FC of the Henrys, you can recognize him by his gold plated Everest and Jennings. MS White, can you think of a better way to spend a weekend in Las Vegas. Pat is eating peanut butter while listening to Air Supply, when will he ever calm down? Next we come to suite 120 by the trash room. If you have seen these chicks you will know why housing put them there. Kim, what a dead !$%&!#. As for Buff and Patricia, just ask any guy in Rez. Nympho, I think she got that name during orientation week in 119A. Let's see who I have left out? Oh ya, suite 221. You couldn't pay me enough to say something nice about those jerks. What's the sense in leaving the Brees early? No one can get any sleep with Frand Pinden around. Alex I imagine is licking a wrapper of a Chipwich right now, Absent Sylvie Nadeau. Seriously folks the Henry's are all jerks, except for Terry Ryan Belause. He is Santa's little helper.

PARA-MEDS

WHAT IS A PARA-MED?

When you walk up to SAGA, you see them coming from elevators rushing to the lines to aid the disabled. They are always ready to serve the needs of those lads, 24 hours a day. The best word to describe a Para-Med is DEDICATION. Oh my, look what I just found, my Para-Med cheque. I think I'll go to the Bree's and get crushed.

RUSSELL

First Russell, a confusing floor? Nah . . . Now, Neil is really John from the Soo, and we don't really know who Neil is but relax, Ted or Freddy is really Ed even if Ed is still Ed and the other Fred is truly Fred and Woody is really . . . Erwin(?), and Jean-Guy and Will's room is upside-down but not anymore. Dave is Floor Rep in a single room, Dave is Dan's former room-mate and Dave is Dan's present room-mate. Don't worry about Dan. Out of Shawn, Shawn and Sean, one is an all-star, Bud-drinking defenceman, one is an English major and the third is one of the new seven wonders of the world. Drew is not Andrew, who is Harley/ Chris's room-mate from Dryden, but is the ouchmaster and is in Aurora, by the way.

Paul is an engineer in Fourth Year.

Paul is an engineer in Fourth Year.

William Robert Lusby is Will here at Carleton, but is Bobby if his folks call – but enough names. Martin's the Res Fellow with the Magic Van and Woody was Sports Whip but he quit and Greg became Whip, unless he quit. Speaking of Greg, his room-mate isn't Ted anymore. We're still waiting for Greg's new room-mate. (It can't get any more simple than it already is, now can it?) Fred (the real one) is in the militias and has us wondering just who it is he'll bust first. Steve from Kingston is Jamie's room-mate but the other Steve, Martin's soccer brother, isn't even on the floor and isn't back at Carleton this term. Chris, one of the Shawn's room-mate, is in the TV lounge watching TSN. By the way, Jamie's third cousin is Randy Gregg of the Oilers. And there's John and Karl down by the Senior Res. Karl's (probably) taken all our money in the hockey pool. Wow. Those are just the guys who live on First Russell, not those who spend a lot of time there. If you were complaining about all the confusion, you better have taken notes because there's going to be a short quiz next period.

As the sun sets on Russell House, it's time to reflect on a few things that made Second Russell unique. Who could forget the first face you saw on the floor in 1986; a diminutive man with a big honker, who, as we discovered, is hooked on amphetamines. Still, who could complain about a guy whose biggest fault is that he couldn't be Res Fellow again on our floor. Thanks, Tom, for a good year.

Still, if one thing could have finished him early it would be the Res Fellow Assassin. This man, also diminutive with a big honker, instilled a sense of fear into all floor authorities.

This year marked the spawning of the R.L.F. (Reindeer Liberation Front). This group, led by Duff, could be seen protecting and glorifying second Russell. But Terry, what were those strange sounds emanating nightly from your room?

But this floor was full of other characters. Garbage Eater Garth and Hoover Hal provided entertainment which could only be rivalled by the annual Tennessee cow chip fling.

Oh, by the way, how does James meet all those good looking girls?

This year was also marked by the Year of the Lid. Taking advantage of the Buy One, Get One Free haircut offer were Spike, Hugh, Mike, Jeff Waller.

It was nice to see another kraut on the floor even if all he could muster was 80%. Just a few things to remember the year by: sound symphony, kegs, freeddy J., OMD, LGB, GPA (or lack of one), the floor rep's room, IPs, the mattress, the Ezman call, Centretown, downtown, Duff Patrol, metal suite, Greece, the dating game, Bree's, the lounge, N.S., de Chappleau, Fourth Gren, Fourth Renfrew, indoor sports, and especially Second Gren.

On a closing note, let me say a promiscuous Res Fellow came from our floor. Thanks for a great year guys, and always remember, we got the Little Girl Blues!

3RD RUSSELL

The men of third Russell were real over achievers this year. That is, when it involved cards, wrestling, and a number of other sports. Now I'm not trying to say that our floor wasn't concerned with their studies; how could we have men like Willie 'A+' Last, Quinn 'PhD' Wardill, and too many more to name! The men of third Russell had a unique mixture of class and gas.

Actually, I'm just kidding about the men of third Russell. We had a great floor this year. Only on our floor did we have a combination of academics and athletics (ie. Rye 47.230 + sleep 290).

A few guys that must be mentioned for representing the true third Russell spirit are Bill 'Gas Man' Gallaher, Sam 'Porcelain Altar' Demeo, Fred 'Sled' Rinne, Chris '160' Kennopohl, Dave 'Fish' Martin, Duane 'Spike' Bromely, Andrew 'Macho Man' Nicholls, Eugene 'Ukraine' Minosora, Ted 'Mouth of Russell Sands, Pat 'I can't agree' Gasparelli, and of course Serge! Thanx for a great year Pete!

4TH RUSSELL

Once upon a time in the land of residence there lived the tyrannical Czar Sterritov. Despite the oppressive acts of the overlord to perpetuate his reign, the forces of revolution overthrew the kingdom and the once-united serfdom divided itself into five unique territories, thereafter known as houses. It soon became clear that the true power of the land now rested in the upper reaches of the House of Russell, and this period in history was forever known as the time of THE BRICK HOUSE, guided by the valiant Prince Afanasiev. And God saw that it was good because:

- "G'Day Chief!"
- We have B-O-B and B-I-B
- We've got Stinky Paul
- You're CRAAAZY!!
- Duk Ku Kim lives!
- We have 8 Daves and 1 Dav
- Phil's in bed by 11:00 p.m.
- We have the three Buds.
- Blackie likes 'em big.
- Murray's getting smart.
- Where's the angel? (heaven?)
- "RAFFI!"
- Bib can really hold his liquor, and his stitches.
- Nooner has no moves (and when he did she puked).
- We are the Gods of baseball and soccer.
- Rim has more than one meaning
- Mr. Beer Can is alive and well.
- Andy looks like a bran muffin.
- We're back-assed country phuks.
- We have the Murray Dewar car rental agency.
- Eric made Orientation week this year.
- We have Mark and Mike and the chronicles of their adventure.
- We are THE BRICK HOUSE.

And so the five houses lived in peace and equity (more or less). La, la, la . . .

2ND GRENVILLE

Long ago and far away there existed a tiny enchanted kingdom called 2nd Grenville, and herein dwelled many a fair damsel. Some did indeed find themselves in distress. KELLY: So where was my knight in shining armour when I was falling off the backs of trucks? I tried to do my best, but I could not. RAE: And where was mine when I was tied up and left at the mercy of terrible fire-breathing reindeer? CHRIS R.: What's this tape doing down my pants? And I'm glad I didn't make it to Panda, or I'd have fallen off a truck too! CAROL: I can't deal with it! I fell for my Prince Charming . . . right in front of him! And where's my next Big Mac coming from?

Other of the kingdom's noble ladies strove mightily in the face of fierce competition to gain a respectable place in the world of intramurals. This quest for athletic supremacy was led by Brenda "The Whip" Goddard. Quite a switch to have people to play the sports and no sports to play! For one kingdom-dweller, sports were less important than courtly love, which she found with her handsome prince on 5th Glen, who awoke her with a kiss . . . almost every morning! Maidens with a taste for the seamier side of life made a habit of venturing far from their charmed kingdom to find excitement in that evil cesspool of crime and filth . . . HULL. No chivalry was to be found there.

From the beginning, 2nd Gren exhibited its flair for the truly unique: the dynamic duo – Buck and Veg; our dauntless Queen Carolyn, and the endless creations of "BLENDERMANIA". Our own "bonnie" res fellow, with her innocent face and her dirty, dirty mind. Joyce, and a big jump into some dirty water. Michelle and a big jump into a tower of whipped cream. Angie R. involved in heated scrambled egg combat. Dar, the desirable security guard, trying to subdue the big, bad wolves who wanted to eat her up. Cynthia T., determined to make the world a better place to live. Julie and Hilary, the littlest princesses . . . and so the ladies of the little kingdom went on to live happily ever after.

Well, uh! Where can I start party evangelists? Take a walk on the far side to Second Lanark. It has been an outrageous, drunken, madcapped, zany year. Orientation Week was a blur to most – remember the pickles and donuts? How about Hash the Human Projectile looking like a 100 grams in the Belly Flop Contest. Remember the various people who passed out and got the marker treatment (Mark, Amanda, Neil). The Century Club provided us with a good start to the Yak List and gave the staircase new meaning to the word reek. Panda punch was groovy. The farmer lad found himself in the slammer. And then there were the diehards who camped out awaiting another tasty punch before Baldachin. How about our X-mas Party and the free beer and our drunk Santa? Loft mania all started with Rossco's and Ian's original one. It was the people who made Second Lanark so stupendous . . . Al's breasts, Spacey's snoring, Shaun's razor-sharp Rambo knives, Irma's purple puke, Mike and Gill – the fire-alarm duo, Dawn and Jen's messy room, Dave the man with no brain – the man with no conscience, Cathy's battle with her earring, Pat the man and his practical jokes – let's not forget his famous fall or his toilet paper-filled room, Sandman's vast knowledge of the sperm whale, Doug's racetrack, Frank's do, Hash's lust for women, Annette (LA MOM), Christie's fragrant sheets, Sue the molly maid who's Mr. Apollo? Bev and Lex-eebee's remember duck lover and the lovely roomie? . . . What was it now 5, 5, 5, what was it now oh Irene? To Gord Hill, an innocent man and his tapes – to the 3rd annual St. Nick, Brian's love for jailbait?? Tom's internal yearnings for feelers; to our Res Fellow's blush, Mark the living legend of a man with a purpose – party. Darren's use of the word "man". John's love of Canadian beer eh! Sandy's innocence?? Ruth's passion for power hour, Jan's early morning rowing, Janet sitting in her bottom drawer in a stupor, Rita's utilization of her frequent weekend single, Nigel's two lost mice, Michelle's late nights, Peggy Lynn's lack of studying, ha! ha! ha! Beat Ako the Polish Princess, Louis's life on the telephone, Jan's aerobic endeavours, Pauli sign; the Italian Stallion, Neil's homebrew and his drunken philosophical views on life, Paul playing caps and then trashing his room, Pete's love of shooters and darts, Christine's costume at the P & P party, Benji's Nazi love obsession, Shannon the new girl on the block. Last but not least Irene, the eyes, ears, and mouth of the floor, how old? 18, 18, . . . 18. Yes it's true. Well, Second Lanark, it was a great year.

Parties at the morning miss't and the weeks of sawing, hammering and hailing that preceeded the grand opening.

Floor meetings that resulted in the shutting off of the television: 1st and goal from the 5 yard line at 10pm every Monday night.

Waking up to find your picture and livelihood plastered on the walls of every floor in residence.

Playing slave for a day only to find out that your masters cheated at Password.

Meeting your favourite security guard on a friendly visit to the morning miss't.

Taking a cab just about everywhere and then calling a surprise track practise when it's time to pay the fare.

Coming back from Thanksgiving to find your room turned upside down, literally.

All those absolute vile orientation punches and how they weren't so bad after 5 or 6 glasses.

All those comments that, even though they were made quite innocently at the time, took on quite a new meaning when taken out of context on the quote list.

Bothering Jamie 40 times a day until the floor shirts arrived.

Remember, this is a limited engagement so get your tickets early, before these kids decide to get back to work in time to salvage the year!

It was The Year of the Dolphins – THE MEN WITH A PORPOISE. The frosh met the Party Czar with a broken beak – jumping over fridges eh? Who will forget Clyde streaking at Baldachin and chewing on Rapman's ear. Few will forget Pete's capture of the PANDA from Ottawa U. Rodney Raven – canoe much? Witty Brent from California never told the girls so got few dates – but mixed a pretty good drink. Drunken Brian jumped "off the wagon" over X-Mas – yup, another Engineer. Bubba was really slow but give him lots of time – Tons of hugging 'got you nothing', Mr. Mooch! Dave moved to GraceLand OC – Elvis, challenge any speeding tickets lately? John you reckless athlete. Holy power - yak birthday celebration Mr. Night Class. Timmy our little dolphin couldn't keep quiet – Shave and get rid of THAT jacket. Greg LeMoine in 2nd year and STILL underage – steals frosh's I.D. I love to type! Erik escaped the rez scene but first cranked the tunes begging for his 7 days. Peder the Dane strummed into the early hours awaiting the Babbling Brooke – Like them boots! Beave made sure we were fine and dandy, then was off to 2nd Gren for more important things. Dave Erskine kept us off to Nautilus. Britt spent hours on 10th Glen honestly professing his virginity to an attentive crowd, while Tony tried to lose his but was luckless on infertile 1st Lanark. Gino – Are you sure you don't go to Ottawa U? Disco Dan – our floor connoisseur of canned seafood and powdered drinks. Flea was our scout in Hull – he loved it so shackled up with Fred. Salut! Thrash – our beloved Whip – always upset about participation dropping like a bucket of wet cement. Curly loved to think and spank, leaving time to shank – lost your party single. Toddo – a great asset to the team – jumped when the opportunity knocked and shared more than a can with B.O. Brian's reply – "I don't want to @$% you, I just want a BJ! LYING DOWN (LEFT TO RIGHT): Karl Schippel (Floor Rep), Kelly Hembruff. SITTING (LEFT TO RIGHT): Ross McCredie, Dan Kunic, Steve Punchard, John Gnanamuttu, Rob Olson, Shawn Goudge, Joe Katzman. STANDING: Mike MacDougall (Res Fellow), Alex Milne, Alex's girlfriend Barb, Chris Garbutt, John Fiegehen, Jacques Poitras, Mike Stagg, Atul (Dooley) Patel, Mike Hambrook, Neil Godbout, Terry Simpson, David (Guido!) Fern, Kenny Fung, Paul Haslhofer, Joe Wilds, James Hutt, Ed (Lalo) Israel, Bill (Last Place) Souder.

... And the year began with a trip that most of us 2nd freewites will not soon forget. Staggering along faithfully behind our leader Mike (Bonehead) MacDougall, we found ourselves in many the precarious and inebriated dilemmas. Well, to begin with our first adventure, being orientation, it was a major hoot! We discovered in that week that Mike was highly specialized in the field of "Res-fellowing", focusing on social behaviour on the alcohol holidays. Mike taught us the most comfortable positions for marathon porcelain bus driving. Thanks Mike!!

Bang, school hit us as fast as the alcohol did. For most of us it was a totally new concept that should have been explored, and conquered. Oh well, there is always the local college.

During those times that school was beginning to raz us, our imprompt second man in charge, Karl Schippel led us to the new extravaganza of mixers and bashers. For what us dudes remember of our outings, we would like to thank Karl for exposing us, as much as he exposed himself. (Ha Ha!)

This led us all up to the fiascos that took place during several football games. How about 2nd Rens rambo bomb squadron that doused the innocent observing fans. How about the picture of the Resin of those master hunks of second's infamy. (God their mothers were proud).

We still should not forget the athletics department from our endurance trained, well toned, and computer analyzed intramural sports fanatics. Whew, they're one bunch of hot carrots!

Living on second Ren, you must develop a fine appreciation for a variety of musical types and talents. Personally, I instead of sleeping in, I'd much prefer to wake up to "TURBO LOVER".

In all, 2nd Ren stands out from the concrete jungle of other residence life. There are a great bunch of "Groovy Cats" and we wish them the best for the future endeavors that they may have. So, here's a coolie to all you crazed fanatics that cruised the floor in 86-87. Paul & Dan.

R.R.R.A. EXECUTIVE

PRESIDENT

STEVE BARBAN

President's Farewell . . .

It is with great honour that I write this message for the yearbook, while at the same time I cannot hide my inner feeling of sadness at leaving residence after four memorable years. I am very proud as I leave Carleton. RRRA has seen tremendous growth this year both in terms of the services it offers and its standing in the community. Who can forget the basketball hoop, the signboard, the infamous popcorn machine, the typing service, the line printer, etc., etc., . . . the list goes on and on. How can anyone ever forget Little Girl Blue? It just goes to show what can be accomplished when a group of people get together with a common goal in mind. Our goal was the betterment of RRRA, which we feel was accomplished. And that's a message to you: if you put your mind to something and work at it you can accomplish anything you want. The sky's the limit! But remember:

"if you don't dream, there is no need to work, but if you don't work, there is no need to dream."

So therefore, set your sights on something, work at it, and you'll get it.

Enough of the philosophy. I'd like to thank everyone who made the year so fun, especially the unsung res heroes — the floor reps. These kind folk (all volunteers ya know) put up with a lot and still came out to play. Hats off to you! I'd also like to thank our very competent staff at RRRA, our O.C. office staff at 850 Bronson (HA! HA!), the res fellows, my mother and father, the King of Norway, Elvis Presley, Christie Brinkley, and Jesus Christ.

An extra special thanks goes to my fellow executive members who, over the year, have become my "best buddies". Without their concerted efforts, RRRA would not have grown the way it has. You were great . . . and I commend you all. Perhaps some day . . .

Finally, I wish to all the very best of luck in any future endeavours. I leave RRRA with a great sense of pride, accomplishment, sadness, and security . . . Security in knowing that RRRA is in good hands with Phil. Ciao.

Sincerely,

Steve Barban

VICE-

PRESIDENT

JOHN CAVANAUGH

To sum up this year would be very difficult. There are many feelings attached; it just doesn't fit into a nutshell. I feel good about what has happened this year in Residence. I think that we (the executive) have been very successful in achieving our objectives, but not without the help and support of a super council and the many others who have supported us along the way.

With every new year, I have re-lived the many res experiences which we have all shared: being away from home, everyday problems of res life, university exams, the friends and all the good times. I've learned more from these experiences than I ever will in a classroom.

It has come to an end so quickly. But the bonds are strong, and I trust the friendships will last and the lessons remain.

I wish you all the best!

Sincerely,

John Cavanaugh

IN MEMORY OF A FRIEND

In fondest memory of David Fallis.

Last October, our floor was faced with the unfortunate death of our good friend David Fallis. Dave had been a tremendous asset to the group we value as our hall family. He'll always be remembered by us as being helpful and cooperative, ready to lend a hand or share a smile when it was in need. Dave was also very amiable and sociable. He was particularly well known for his great sense of humour, especially his Pee Wee Herman impression. Dave was famous for his words of wisdom, which he wrote anonymously on hall neighbours' memo boards. Some of these classics include "Never glue your eyelids together", and "Never ski in a bodycast", or "Never staple your upper lip to your lower lip". Under these phrases he wrote the letter 'D', and no one actually knew who the anonymous writer was until four weeks into school. Dave was a very happy-go-lucky type of person. He was always game for a little fun. One of the most humorous incidents he encountered here occurred one night when he happened to be in a particularly chatty mood, and was preventing his room-mate Paul from having a good night's sleep. Paul, exasperated by the constant chatter, decided to initiate a pillow fight and teach Dave a lesson. After the third blow, feathers flew everywhere – Dave, the room and the hallway were completely covered. We all got a good laugh out of that one! Dave was the kind of guy that genuinely cared about things. Early in September, he found an abandoned baby squirrel, and, concerned for its well-being, brought it back to Residence. He attempted to nurse it back to health with Fruit Loops, but had little success, and so brought it to his Senior Residents, who brought it to an animal shelter. When Dave had spare time he liked to play a variety of different sports, most of them exceptionally well. We will always remember his bathrobe badminton, played in the hallway with Paul and Nigel. Dave also enjoyed swimming and diving – he performed incredible flips off of the diving board often, amazing his room-mate. During school hours, Dave was a very dedicated student. His father, Jim Fallis, told us that Dave had been anxiously looking forward to coming to Carleton and had been very proud when he was accepted into Journalism. Dave took extra precautions to ensure that he got all of his work done, and done well. One of these precautions was his habit of leaving himself reminders around his room, in the form of notes saying things like "Buy newspaper for Journalism", or "Remember to watch the news". Dave unfortunately, did not have the chance to realize most of his life plans. But the most important things in life can be achieved at any age, and Dave had them all – many friends, and the capacity for being a special friend in return. And as such, we will keep him in our hearts always, and cherish our memories of him. Dave is irreplaceable for us.

We've decided to share our memories with those who mean so much to us!! #1) The gals! You know who you are! A fine round of congratulations are in order if we pass the year and . . . the mornings after!! Special things that come to our minds are: "Oliver's", Bree's, Tate's, Oliver's, Fatty's, R.R. Club, Cone, Happy Cast-Removing (Steph), movies – both at Oli's & Bree's, SAGA two hour lunches and dinners, hanging in the Commons, The Laf, Stoney's, mushrooms – "Where's Steve?", the Market (Eva), and last but not least the Football Team! Which brings us to . . . #2) The guys! Thanx to all those who made our year memorable. A special mention to Tim and Bob who wouldn't have made it through the year without our iron, advice, and clothes! To Tony who helped us in all those last minute jams! And . . . to all those guys still collecting "Club Z" points. Better luck next year! (7th and 9th Glen men!) Cheers!! To a good summer everybody. Hope to see you all on the rebound next year, drinking, partying, and boffing as much as possible.

Arla, Steph Girl, and Leann

P.S. To those who we didn't have enough room to mention . . . drinks on us in the Brees!!
